

Great Music and an amazing selection of Puddings in Orleton Village Hall on Saturday 24th February.

An award winning instrumental trio who blend Celtic folk music with strands of rock, Americana and Eastern European tradition are performing at Orleton Village Hall on Saturday 24th February.

Critically acclaimed acoustic trio Whalebone are touring to promote their latest international award-winning album Mirabilia. The band are known for using more unusual instruments alongside traditional guitars and fiddle, with five-string violin, eight-string baritone guitar, mandolin and bouzouki all featuring in their music. "We're definitely not purists where music is concerned. We love to blend different musical flavours together" said guitarist Steve Downs, who will be joined onstage by fiddle player Sarah Ibberson and guitarist Char Watson.

Tickets are £10.00 (£6.00 children) and are available from the Village Shop and Post Office, or online at www.ticketsource.co.uk/whalebone. Price also includes a choice of locally made pleasant puddings, delectable desserts, and succulent sweets. Bring your own drinks.

To see and hear clips of the band in action, please see www.whalebone-music.com or check out their YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/whalebonemusicvideos.